

Design Project Build - Architect Challenge Awards

The awards associated with the architect challenge were developed to add an entertaining and rewarding element to the process. Each challenge was created with the location specific challenges and overall theme in mind. Check it out!

"Message in a Design" Award - Where's Waldo book

Even Waldo has something to say at this challenge. Look for the hidden "BDF 2K09" in each design and decide who represented the acronym most favorably.

"Brick & Mortar" Award - A real brick w/mortar

The design that incorporates each challenge most efficiently will win this category. Check out the building details and decide for yourself who deserves the "Brick & Mortar" Award.

"Good Fellas" Award - Bottle of Vodka 14

Vote for the architect pair who you feel have the most team spirit and positive attitude because they're the ultimate "Good Fellas!"

"Best in Show" Award - You Nailed It with a block of wood & a nail

"Best In Show" Choose a design that condones the most innovative style, flamboyant appearance, and reaches your inner most appreciation for architectural structures.

"Groundbreaking Design" Award - A golden shovel!

"Groundbreaking Design" The winners of this category have created a design that will most likely move through development and into the construction phase.

"Green Light" Award - A green lightbulb

The "Green Light" award is not related to video production but originality. Vote for the design that is technologically advanced and resourceful using elements of renewable energy and green building.

Ballots were distributed to attending guests and collected at the end of the evening. Results soon to be revealed!
